

I support XM Radio - it's a great service! The traffic and weather channels are great on road trips - something we can't get while we're on the highway in the middle of nowhere. It's very reliable and it's a much needed service for us road travellers. Thank you for listening.